PROCEDURE

Upon submission of the application, filing fee and other required information and documents to the Planning Division, the request will be scheduled for a public hearing by the Planning Commission (usually about 3 weeks from the date of submission). The Planning Commission will review the request along with the staff recommendation and any public testimony and make a decision to either approve, approve with conditions or deny the request. After the Planning Commission has adopted the resolution stating its decision (usually one week after the public hearing) and filed a copy of the resolution with the City Clerk, the applicant or any interested person disagreeing with the decision of the Planning Commission may appeal to the City Council within ten (10) days. A filing fee of $50 must be paid upon submission of the appeal forms to the City Clerk. If the request is appealed, the City Clerk will schedule the request for a public hearing by the City Council. The City Council will either concur with or modify the Planning Commission's decision and the decision of the City Council is final. If there is no appeal within the ten (10) day appeal period, the decision of the Planning Commission is final. The approved request becomes null and void if it is not exercised within the time limit specified in the resolution or, if no date is specified, within one year from the date of approval of the request.
