

Extended City Field Closures Due to Renovations

Twice a year the majority of City playfields close for renovations in order to ensure that the integrity and safety of fields are maintained. These closures are planned between youth sports league seasons to further minimize the displacement of local youth sport participants.

As of Monday, December 14, 2009, the following fields will be closed for renovations and will re-open on February 1, 2010:

Albert Van Zanten Park

1495 Greenfield Drive

All sports fields in the park are closed, signs are posted.

Cajon Valley Middle School

750 Park Street

All sports fields in the park are closed, signs are posted.

Tuttle Park

379 Chase Avenue

All sports fields in the park are closed, signs are posted.

Hillside Park

840 Buena Terrace

Lower park is closed, signs are posted.

Wells Park (excluding baseball field and dog park)

1153 E. Madison Avenue

All soccer/playfield areas are closed, signs are posted.

Kennedy Park (excluding baseball field)

1675 E. Madison Avenue

The soccer/playfield, located in the center of the park between the ball field and skatepark, is closed. Signs are posted.
